Happy Birthday to Me!

This happens to be my birthday month. It looks like I am celebrating myself, but actually I wanted to thank my mom. She is an amazing person. Now that I am a parent, I can appreciate all her patience with me when I was younger and I am so thankful for her. You never realize how your parents are your role models until you become one. And you never realize how often they were right either. Thanks mom for everything. I love you!
